Trustees:

Miss M. B. BYLES,

Messrs. E. E. AUSTEN and J. V. TURNER.

Committee:

Mrs. J. H. AUSTEN, Miss M. B. BYLES,
Miss J. TRIMBLE, Messrs. E. E. AUSTEN,
R. CROKER and L. G. HARRISON.

Recorder: Miss D. LAWRY.

Social Secretary: Miss R. D. BROWNE.

Treasurer: OSCAR ARMSTRONG.

Auditor: T. HERBERT.

Secretary:

W. J. ROOTS,

57 Ormond Street, Ashfield. 'Phone FL 4115.

Assistant Secretary: Mrs. P. ROOTS.

The duties of the Club are divided, so consequently see:—

President-re official business.

General Secretary—re general business and admission of new members.

Recorder—re details of routes and information, and reports of walks.

Walks Secretary — re official walks and other details.

Social Secretary—re introduction of new members, entertainments and name of Evening's Host.

Copies of photographs for Club's Album should be handed to Mr. E. Yardley.

Members, on production of their badge of membership, will receive a reduction on all walking and camping gear from the Scout Shop, George Street, Sydney.

A similar reduction on all photographic work will be given by Leica Photo. Service, Kyle House, Macquarie Place, Sydney.

A library containing books of special interest to members is available at the Club Rooms on Friday evenings. A small charge is made for this.

The Royal Life Saving Society has arranged to provide dinner from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Friday evenings, and also coffee from 9 p.m.; both for a very reasonable charge.

Articles, stories, pars., etc., are welcomed by the Publishing Committee of "The Sydney Bushwalker," for inclusion in the bi-monthly publication.

CAMPING TRIPS

Members desirous of joining week-end camping walks or walks of a longer duration shall give reasonable notice of their intention to the leaders concerned.

Leaders should write details of route of walk, etc., or any change therein on the special board, 14 days before walk, and let the Recorder have accounts of trips as soon thereafter as possible.

Leaders receiving no reasonable notification from members regarding their joining, camping or other extended walks are empowered to cancel such walks forthwith.

On walks occupying more than one day, members must have full camping equipment, or arrange camping parties among themselves.

Members shall verify times of departure of trains, boats and cars concerned with walk.

General Meeting, second Friday in month—closed to non-members.

SAFETY FIRST. Always take your first aid outfit.
